Nausicaa

Lingua e Cultura Italiana in Sicilia

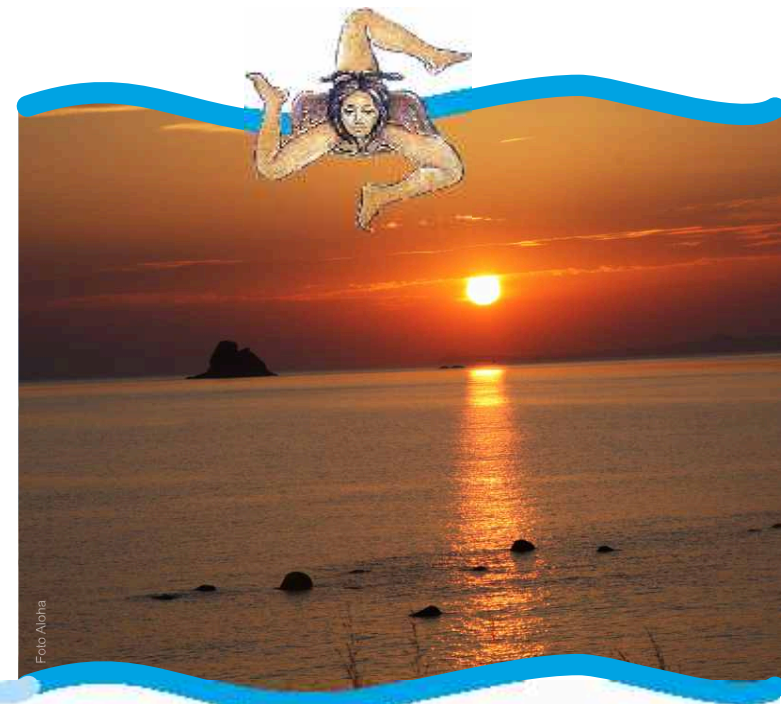

Foto: Aloha

- A wonderful combination of study and holiday.
- Small friendly classes provide an optimal learning environment.
- Organised excursions to ensure you discover the best of Sicily.
- Lots of free time to relax and enjoy the many beautiful local beaches.
- Great value for money backed up a warm southern welcome.

Looking for the perfect combination of language course, seaside holiday and cultural journey? You will find it all at Patti.

Nausicaa was founded in 1999 in Pizzo Calabro. After a successful decade of hosting and teaching students in Calabria, Nausicaa will now embark on a new endeavour and reopen its centre in Patti, a charming village at the Saracena coast.

Surrounded by gently rolling hills, and a blue deep sea which nestles into innumerable small bays with the imposing sight of the Aeolian Islands, here you will discover the beauty Sicily.

Through one panoramic road on the sea, that offers a landscape of incredible beauty, after approximately 10 km you reach Tindari, the ancient Greek city with its theatre, the Gymnasium, and the villas. Nausicaa is placed in the heart of Patti where the typical and friendly Sicilian atmosphere with the life of fashionable premises for all the tastes can be appreciated.

Patti is not yet touched by mass tourism so you can test out and improve your language skills right from the beginning in an authentic language environment. The warm and hospitable locals will certainly make sure that you combine your Italian studies with a relaxing holiday.

Tranquil Environment

Nausicaa is recognised for our competence and the relaxed and friendly environment of the school. To ensure the intimacy and authenticity of your Sicilian experience, we limit the total number of participants per week to 10.

Our small classes, each with a maximum of five students, offer more intimacy and personal attention. These small classes are more easily tailored to your needs. Our teachers, who are all well-trained, will give you a varied class that features not only the finer points of the language, but also culture, daily life and history of Italy. The classroom language is Italian and you will soon find yourself communicating with students from other countries in your new common language.

In our small friendly classes you will feel right at home and ready to learn.

Appropriate Levels

Nausicaa offers a range of levels to suit your ability: Elementary 1 and 2, Intermediate 1 e 2, Advanced 1 and 2. Classes are run from Monday to Friday, 9:00am-1:00pm. Each lesson is 55 minutes with a five minute break. Private tuitions also available, beginning on your choice of day.

If you are not an absolute beginner, an initial test will ensure you are placed at the right level. At Nausicaa you will not be left behind or be held back, instead you are encouraged to improve along with other students at a similar level to you.

Varied Course Material

We use a modern teaching model at Nausicaa, with excellent support material. Here, alongside reading and writing, special emphasis is placed on oral expression and communication, conversation and oral comprehension. Our teachers give practical illustration to the syntactical and grammatical structures taught in lessons. As well as specially chosen traditional course material, we also use film material, newspaper articles, cassette recordings, games and songs to make the classes as lively and varied as possible. At the end of your course, there is an optional final test to measure your improvement during your time with us. You will also receive a diploma of attendance.

Other Study

We also offer various other courses on request including: cooking, ceramics, drawing and painting. Please contact us for further information on these courses.

Take the opportunity to explore the whole region with the various excursions we offer.

Nausicaa organises a range of fascinating excursions each week. Destinations include museums and monuments over the whole of Sicily and Calabria, Taormina with its Greek theatre, to the famous trading town of Messina, or to the archeological excavations in Tindari.

The excursions often include a swim and a chance to admire the views at one of the beautiful natural beaches along the Sicilian coast, such as Capo Calava, Tindari etc. On the return journey you will enjoy the different tastes of restaurants that offer traditional Mediterranean cuisine.

Other Activities

Nausicaa also organises cultural activities during the week including movie nights, showing important Italian movies or music nights showcasing Italian music.

Other Options

There is a wide range of sports activities available on request, from diving and paragliding to exploring nature by trekking or mountain bike. On the weekends take a day tour to the nearby Aeolian Islands and marvel at the volcanic activity of Stromboli. You will be delighted with the amazing views of the islands and their clear waters, white pumice beaches or black sand beaches.
